The chairman is to appoint a managing director on behalf of the vice-chairman if the vice-chairman cannot attend the meeting due to the aforementioned reasons. A director is assigned if there is no managing director. In the event that the chairman does not appoint anyone, the managing director or the directors are to recommend one person.

The chairperson position mentioned above shall be assumed by a managing director or director, who has been on the board for more than six months and possesses adequate understanding of the Company's financial and business performance. However, if a shareholder raises a litigious claim against the Company according to Article 189 of The Company Act, the abovementioned documents must be retained until the end of the litigation.
- Article 9 Attendance at a shareholders' meeting shall be calculated based on shares. The number of shares in attendance is counted based on the attendance book or the submitted attendance card, together with the shares with the written or electronic voting rights.
- The chair is to call the meeting to order at the designated meeting time, but is to announce a postponement if the attending shareholders represent less than half of the total issued shares. The number of postponement is limited to two times, totaling no more than 1 hour.
- The chair is to announce the meeting adjourned if still less than 1/3 of the total issued shares presented at the meeting after the postponement twice.
- If the quorum is not met after two postponements but the attending shareholders represent one third or more of the total number of issued shares, a tentative resolution may be adopted pursuant to Paragraph 1, Article 175 of the Company Act. All shareholders shall be notified of the tentative resolution and another shareholders' meeting shall be convened within 1 month.
- If the attending shareholders representing more than half of the total issued shares before the end of the meeting, the chair is to make a tentative resolution and re-submit it for a shareholders vote in accordance with Article 174 of the Company Act.
- Article 10 The board should set the agenda for the meetings that it convenes. Relevant motions (including extraordinary motions and amendments to the original motions) shall be decided on a case-by-case basis. The meeting should be carried out based on the agenda and should not be changed without the resolution of the shareholders.
- For the meeting that is convened by the ones with the convening authority outside of the board, the aforementioned rule still applies.
- The chair may not declare the meeting adjourned prior to completion of deliberation on the meeting agenda of the preceding two paragraphs (including extraordinary motions), except by a resolution of the shareholders meeting. If the chair declares the meeting adjourned in violation of the rules of procedure, the other members of the board of directors shall promptly assist the attending shareholders in electing a new chair in accordance with statutory procedures, by agreement of a majority of the votes represented by the attending shareholders and then continue the meeting.
- The chairman shall give proposals and shareholder proposed revisions or extraordinary motions sufficient time for clarification and discussion. Once the chairman perceives that voting can proceed, the chairman shall stop the discussion and initiate the voting.
- Article 11 Before speaking, the attending shareholders should first fill out speech notes clearly stating the purpose, account number (or the attendance pass number) or account name and allow the chair to determine the order to give the speech.
- The attending shareholders are considered to offer no statement if they only provide speech notes without giving statements. In the event where the content of the statement is inconsistent with the speech note, the content of the statement should prevail.
- Each shareholder shall not make more than two statements for the same proposals without the chairman's agreement, and each statement shall not exceed five minutes. If the shareholder's statement violates the rules or exceeds the scope of the issue, the chairman shall halt the statement.
- When an attending shareholder is making a statement, other shareholders shall not speak unless given permission by the chairman and the speaking shareholder. Violators shall be halted by the chairman.
- The corporate shareholders who assign more than two legal representatives to attend the meeting can only have one person giving speech for a motion.
- After an attending shareholder speaks, the chairman shall personally answer or designate a person to answer.
- Article 12 Voting at a shareholders meeting shall be calculated based the number of shares.
- The shares of the shareholders without voting rights are not counted in the total issued shares for the resolution of the meeting.

A shareholder who has a personal interest with the agenda of the meeting which may result in a conflict of interest with the Company shall not participate in the voting, nor shall he/she act on behalf of other shareholders to exercise the voting rights of other shareholders.

The number of shares held by shareholders who are not permitted to vote shall be excluded from total voting rights represented in the meeting.

Other than the trusts or securities agencies approved by the authorities, a person representing more than two shareholders as a proxy cannot have the shares exceeding three percent of the total voting shares. The exceeded voting rights will not be counted.

Article 13 Every share represents one vote unless it is restricted or deemed non-voting shares under Paragraph 2, Article 179 of the Company Act.

Shareholders may exercise their voting power by electronic transmission or in correspondence in shareholder meetings, and the exercise method shall be specified in the notice of shareholders' meetings. Shareholders exercising voting rights by correspondence or electronic means will be deemed to have attended the meeting in person. However, this is also considered to have waived his/her rights with respect to the extraordinary motions and amendments to original proposals of that meeting. It is therefore recommended that the Company avoids the submission of extraordinary motions and amendments to original proposals.

Shareholders exercising voting rights by correspondence or electronic means shall deliver their declaration of intent to the Company at least two days before the shareholders meeting. If there is a repetition of the declaration of intent, whichever delivered the first will be served, except when a declaration is made to cancel the earlier declaration of intent.

After a shareholder has exercised voting rights by correspondence or electronic means, in the event the shareholder intends to attend the shareholders' meeting in person, a written declaration of intent to retract the voting rights already exercised under the preceding paragraph shall be made known to the Company, by the same means by which the voting rights were exercised 2 business days before the date of the shareholders meeting. If the notice of retraction is submitted after that time, the voting rights already exercised by correspondence or electronic means shall prevail. If a shareholder has exercised voting rights both by correspondence or electronic means and by appointing a proxy to attend a shareholders meeting, the voting rights exercised by the proxy in the meeting shall prevail.

Unless otherwise provided in the Company Act and in the Company's articles of incorporation, the passage of a proposal shall require an affirmative vote of a majority of the voting rights represented by the attending shareholders. During the voting process, the chair or the designated personnel announce the total number of the eligible voting rights of the attending shareholders case by case and then carry out the voting. On the same day of the meeting, the number of agree, disagree and abstain are entered into the Market Observation Post System.

For the motion that the chair consults every attending shareholder without any objection, it is considered passed with the same effectiveness as the voting. In case of any objection, voting should be taken in accordance with the paragraph above.

For the amendment or substitute of the same motion, the chair is to combine it with the original motion to determine the vote order. If one of the proposals has been passed, the other proposals are viewed as denied and no more voting will be conducted.

The monitoring and counting personnel for the voting should be assigned by the chair, and the monitoring personnel should have a shareholder status.

Vote counting for shareholders' meeting proposals or elections shall be conducted in public at the place of the shareholders meeting. Immediately after vote counting has been completed, the results of the voting, including the statistical tallies of the numbers of votes, shall be announced on-site at the meeting and made into record.

Article 14 Shareholders' meetings that involve election of directors shall proceed according to the Company's election policy. Results of the elections, including the list of elected directors and the final tally, must be announced on-site.

All ballots used in the above election shall be sealed and signed by the ballot examiner, and held in proper custody for at least one year. However, if a shareholder raises a litigious claim against the Company according to Article 189 of The Company Act, the abovementioned documents must be retained until the end of the litigation.

Article 15 The voted issues should be made into a resolution record signed or stamped by the chair and then distributed to each shareholder within twenty days after the meeting. The production and the distribution of the resolution record can be made electronically.

The distribution of the aforementioned resolutions can be entered into the Market Observation Post System to be publicly announced.

The resolution proceedings should correctly record the year, month, day, venue, name of the chair, voting method, the essentials of the proceedings and the voting results (including the statistical weights). If there is an election of directors, the votes received by each nominee shall also be disclosed. These records are to be kept permanently during the Company's existence.

Article 16 The number of shares owned by the solicitors and the entrusted proxies is compiled into a chart with a prescribed format on the meeting day and is disclosed clearly at the meeting venue.

The Company must disclose on MOPS in a timely manner any shareholder meeting resolutions that constitute material information as defined by law or the rules of Taiwan Stock Exchange Corporation (or Taipei Exchange).
